Eureka!

Set amongst shady gum trees on this elevated large allotment, the light filled home is ready for its next occupants. Located only a short walk from the centre of Chewton and close to the Castlemaine Diggings National Park. This character rich home offers a formal lounge, three bedrooms and a study or fourth bedroom with built in shelving. The master bedroom has an ensuite bathroom and walk in robe. There is a full width dining/2nd living room with French door access to the rear yard. The central kitchen has stone benchtops, ample storage, electric 900mm cooker and split system heating and cooling. There is a central family bathroom, laundry and front and rear verandas and under house storage. This is a super quiet part of town and a very pretty semi bushland setting.
