

Lot 5, 20 Main Street Corindhap VIC

A vacant 1/4 acre (approx.) block in the main street of Corindhap, ready for you to build your new home or just make use of the c120m2 big shed. 40 mins south of Ballarat, 50 mins to Geelong and 5 to Rokewood (which has a primary school, general store/post office, pub, a golf course, swimming pool and sports reserve) - the ideal rural getaway but close to regional centres.

This block is within the Township Zone making it easy to build here (STCA).

The town was established in 1852 after gold was found at Boundary Hill. By 1857 the town had grown to 5000 people, but now there are not so many.
