3 2 2

An unexpected find with near-perfect 360-degree views of the surrounding landscape stretching to the Pyrenees and beyond is this architecturally designed off-grid home on 52.2 acres (approx) of private bushland, with remnants of a rich gold rush history that adds character and intrigue to the landscape. Hidden within the property is a spectacularly restored mine tunnel with a wine cellar, perfect for wine enthusiasts or as a unique entertainment space. Set atop a private hilltop, this exceptional property combines modern luxury with eco-design, all within a 15-minute drive of Castlemaine, 25 minutes to Daylesford and an hour and 40-minute drive of Melbourne.

Built with stone sourced from the property, this carefully designed home seamlessly integrates with its natural
